- 1 Jane: Hi, Yuki. I'm hungry. Shall we go to a restaurant for lunch?
Yuki: Sure, Jane. What kind of food do you like?
- 2 Look, everyone. Now, I will introduce a gesture from England. This person does two things. First, he raises one of his hands. Next, he puts his other hand on his head. This was used in meetings in the old days.
- 3 Becky: Hi, Shota. I'm at a supermarket. Tomorrow, we will have a party at home. Is there anything you want me to buy?
Shota: Thank you, Becky. I will make a cake tonight. So I need a bottle of milk, some eggs, and bananas for the cake.
Becky: OK. Oh, Shota, we don't need to buy any eggs. I think there are enough eggs in the kitchen.
Shota: Really? Oh, you are right.
Becky: Do you need sugar?
Shota: No. We have enough sugar. Thank you, Becky.
Becky: You are welcome. I will buy the things you need. See you later.
- 4 John: Good morning, Keiko. I cleaned my room last night and I put the trash in this plastic bag. What should I do now?
Keiko: Good morning, John. The trash can be burned, right? It's Tuesday today, so please put the bag in front of our house. The bags will be collected later today.
John: OK, can I put these old magazines and newspapers in the same bag?
Keiko: No, we should recycle them. The day for them is Friday.
John: I will keep that in mind. Oh, there are some plastic bottles here. Do you have another bag for them? Plastic bottles can also be recycled, right?
Keiko: Yes, but the day for plastic things is tomorrow. This is the bag for them. Here you are.
John: Thank you, Keiko.
- 5 Thank you for visiting the area of lions. Now, it's 1 o'clock. Soon, we will show you two babies of lions here. They are very small and cute. The babies were born three months ago. They usually sleep almost all day and sometimes drink milk in a different room. They can't eat food now, but they love milk. Oh, they are coming. We are sorry but please don't use your cameras and cellphones. Strong light is not good for the babies. ...Now they are here! This is the first time you can see these babies today. After 30 minutes from now, they will go back to their room. But you have one more chance to see them today. The babies will come back here again at 4 p.m. If you want to know more about the babies, you can buy books about them at the shop near the gate. Buying the books is helpful because the money will be used to take care of the babies. We hope you have a wonderful day at our zoo. Thank you.

Question 1: How many times does the zoo show the babies to the visitors today?

Question 2: What is the thing the visitors can do to be helpful for the babies?

- 6 Emily: Come on, Koji. Are you tired?
Koji: Yes, Emily. Please wait. I want to rest.
Emily: OK. Let's rest here. I will give you some hot tea.
Koji: Thank you. Oh, look at this map. We are already at this point now.
Emily: Yes, but it will take one more hour to get to the top of the mountain. We need energy. How do you get energy when you are tired, Koji?
Koji: I think drinking hot tea and eating delicious chocolate are very good for my body. I always bring my favorite chocolate.
Emily: I also love chocolate. Can you give me some? Chocolate is good for relaxing.
Koji: Sure, here you are. How do you get energy, Emily?
Emily: I think enjoying the view from each place is important. Look, we can see a lot of things from this high place.
Koji: I see. You mean you can get energy from the view?
Emily: Yes, I like the view from a high place. When I look back and think about the way we've come, I can feel my effort until now.
Koji: Oh, you are talking about getting energy for your mind. Now I think getting energy for my mind is as important as getting energy for my body.
Emily: That's right! Oh, you look better, Koji. Are you feeling good now?
Koji: Yes, I'm ready! Let's go!

Question 1: What did Koji give Emily as energy for her body?

Question 2: What did Koji notice through the conversation?
