【 Part C 】

(例) She will start writing a diary.

When people want to know what they did on a specific day, their diary will help them remember that. By writing a diary, people can keep their personal records.

Writing a diary helps people improve their skills for expressing their ideas, too. By writing a diary, people have chances to organize their ideas.

Writing a diary also helps people relax. People usually focus on writing a diary without doing other things. Focusing on one single thing may help people relax.

Please look at Part A. In this part of the listening test, you will hear five conversations between Kate and Yuta. You will hear each conversation twice. After listening to each conversation twice, you will hear a question. Each question will be read only once and you must choose one answer. Now begin.

- 1 Kate: How was the movie, Yuta?
Yuta: Oh, Kate. I don't know a better movie than that.

Question: What does Yuta mean?

- 2 Kate: Yuta, you want to go to the museum near the station, right? How about going there with me? I'm also interested in the museum.
Yuta: Sounds great, Kate. When do you want to go there?
Kate: How about this weekend? On Saturday, I have a tennis practice until noon, but I'll be free in the afternoon. I will be free all day on Sunday.
Yuta: I may visit my grandparents on Sunday. So, can we visit the museum after your tennis practice?
Kate: Sure!

Question: When will Kate and Yuta visit the museum?

- 3 Yuta: Hi, Kate. A student from Australia will stay with me and my family for a week. I want him to have a great experience in Japan, but I don't know where I should take him.
Kate: Well, Yuta, he's going to come to experience an everyday life in Japan, right?
Yuta: I think so.
Kate: Then, I think taking him to the places you often visit is a good idea.

Question: Which is true about this conversation?

- 4 Yuta: Hi, Kate. How was your weekend?
Kate: Hi, Yuta. I went fishing at the river with my host family. Though I couldn't get a lot of fish, I had a great time.
Yuta: Oh, why did you feel so?
Kate: Well, while I was waiting to get some fish, I had a lot of time to talk with my host family. Of course I talk a lot with them at home too, but I think we relaxed more in nature and we could enjoy talking more. We could see a beautiful mountain and we enjoyed talking about our experiences of climbing other mountains. When we finally got a few fish, we enjoyed talking about the fish, too!
Yuta: That sounds great!

Question: What is the thing Kate enjoyed during the weekend?

- 5
- Kate: Yuta, are you looking for something?
Yuta: Yes, Kate. I can't find my gloves. I thought I put them in my coat pocket, but they're not there.
Kate: Did you wear the gloves when you came to school this morning?
Yuta: Yes, I did. I took off the gloves in my classroom and put them on my desk. And then, I left my classroom to talk to my friend in another class. Oh, so, maybe I didn't put them in my coat pocket. But they are not on my desk.
Kate: When you put your gloves on your desk, did you put anything else there?
Yuta: Oh, yes. I put my club uniform there, too. After I came back to my classroom, I put the uniform in my bag for the club activity.
Kate: Is that the bag you're holding now?
Yuta: Yes. Let me check inside. Oh, I found the gloves! I guess I put them inside with my uniform. Thank you, Kate!

Question: Which is true about this conversation?

Please look at Part B. In this part of the listening test, you will hear a speech by a teacher from New Zealand. It will be spoken twice. After listening to it twice, you will hear two questions. Each question will be read only once and you must choose one answer. Now begin.

- 6
- Hello, students. In the lesson last week, I talked about myself, especially about my family and my hobby. Today, I want to introduce my hometown in New Zealand to you. After my story, you can ask me questions.
- New Zealand has two large islands. I'm from a small town in the southern island. To get to my hometown from the nearby large city, people need to drive for about three hours. There are many attractive things in my hometown. I want to talk about two of them today. One is a beautiful lake with water which looks really blue. People are moved when they see the lake. There is a small mountain near the lake. The view of the lake with the mountain is amazing. The other attractive thing is the night sky with bright stars. The night sky there looks beautiful because the air is very clear. The night sky is so beautiful that many tourists including tourists from Japan visit my hometown to see it. Also, some scientists who study stars come to the town for their research. I haven't been back to my hometown for about a year, so I haven't seen the night sky there for a while, but my friends took pictures of it and sent them to me. I'll show you some of them later. My hometown is very far from Japan, but, if you have a chance in the future, please visit my hometown!

- Question 1: Which is true about the things the teacher said?
Question 2: Which is not true about the teacher's hometown?

Please look at the test paper of Part C. First, please read the message on the card Kate received. You have half a minute. Now, begin to read.

【 half a minute to read 】

Stop reading. Now you are going to hear the conversation between Yuta and Kate. They are talking about the message on the card Kate received. You will hear their conversation and the question about it twice. When you are listening, you can take notes on the test paper about the things they say. Now, listen to the conversation.

Yuta: Hi, Kate. What are you doing?

Kate: Hi, Yuta. I'm reading a New Year's card I received from my grandma and grandpa.

Yuta: Oh, that's nice.

Kate: In the card, they say it may be good for me to start something new when a new year starts. I agree with them and I am wondering what I should start this year.

Yuta: Oh, I agree with them, too. Actually, I have started a new thing from the New Year's Day. It is to write a diary every day. I write things which happened during the day. I also write how I felt during the day.

Kate: Oh, writing a diary sounds like a good thing to start.

Yuta: Yes, I think so. When people want to know what they did on a specific day, their diary will help them remember that.

Kate: You're right. By writing a diary, people can keep their personal records. That's a good point of writing a diary. I want to start writing a diary this year, like you.

Yuta: I recommend doing that.

Kate: I think writing a diary helps people improve their skills for expressing their ideas, too. Sometimes it's difficult for people to explain what they think. By writing a diary, people have chances to organize their ideas.

Yuta: I agree with you. That's another good point of writing a diary. Oh, I also have found I can relax very well when I'm writing a diary.

Kate: So, writing a diary also helps people relax. That's also a good point of writing a diary.

Yuta: Yeah. People usually focus on writing a diary without doing other things. Focusing on one single thing may help people relax.

Kate: Wow, writing a diary seems to have many good points!

Yuta: So, will you start writing a diary?

Kate: Yes, I will!

Question: What will Kate start? And, according to Kate and Yuta, what are the good points of the thing she will start? Write your answers for both questions in English.

You have six minutes to write. Now begin.
